

Executive Department
State of Idaho

The Office of the Governor
Proclamation

State Capitol
Boise

WHEREAS, Dave High has served five Governors, four Attorneys General, two Secretaries of State, and three State Auditors-State Controllers as advisor to the State Board of Examiners; and

WHEREAS, Dave High prudently advised the Board of Examiners, beginning in the 1980s, when it was necessary for the Board to permanently reduce state agency appropriations; and

WHEREAS, Dave High has been instrumental in the evolution of the Board of Examiners subcommittee process to improve efficiencies of the Board of Examiners; and

WHEREAS, Dave High persuaded the Board of Examiners to incorporate written minutes in order to establish a public record on behalf of the public; and

WHEREAS, Dave High had a knack for cutting through often dry and complicated issues coming before the Board of Examiners and making them seem interesting, at least occasionally; and

WHEREAS, Dave High served on the Deferred Compensation subcommittee with such distinction that he was the recipient of the "Most Frequent Trader" Award; and

WHEREAS, the term "It's High time" is of particular significance as a campaign slogan for Richard High, who is a former Idaho legislator and Dave High's father;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, JAMES E. RISCH, Governor of the State of Idaho, do hereby proclaim November 14, 2006:

DAVE HIGH TIME

in Idaho.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Idaho at the Capitol in Boise on this 14th day of November in the year of our Lord two-thousand and six and of the Independence of the United States of America the two hundred thirty-first and of the Statehood of Idaho the one hundred seventeenth.
